Social Security Number _____

SOCIAL SECURITY CARD STATEMENT (SSC)

We have received information from the federal processor that your name and/or social security number does not correspond with the Social Security Administration records. If you reported the wrong Social Security number you are advised to file a new FAFSA with the correct Social Security number.

If your Social Security number and/or name are correct but not found in the Social Security Administration (SSA) database, you must contact the SSA office so that they may update their database. You must also submit a copy of your Social Security card to the Office of Financial Aid.

Additionally, you must correct your Student Aid Report by re entering the SSN and/or name originally reported as if it is a correction and return it to the Federal Processor.
