Applications accepted: March 1, 2016 – March 31, 2016

Undergraduate students who are enrolled in or who have completed approved Ethics courses at The Florida State University may apply for any of three Ethics in Business scholarships made available by the State of Florida and Florida State University.

Please note the following criteria:

Eligibility:
- Approved Ethics Course - please refer to the attached list, or to the FSU website at www.finaid.fsu.edu/aid/Ethics_Schol.html for the list of courses that qualify for consideration.
- To be considered for the scholarship, applicable ethics course grade must be B- or better.
- Overall academic G.P.A. should be 3.0 or greater
- Commitment to community service is a consideration for eligibility. Community Service participation must be documented through FSU Serv Script or a letter from the organization.
- Financial need is a primary consideration (as calculated through completion of the Free Application for Federal Student Aid –FAFSA at www.fafsa.ed.gov).

Awarding
- Awards will be made after the end of the Spring 2016 term
- Awards will be posted to the Financial Aid Student Toolkit.
- If the award is made after other aid was awarded, other aid may be adjusted to accommodate scholarship eligibility.
- Students must be enrolled for a minimum of 12 credit hours each term to be eligible for disbursement of the award.

These scholarships are made available through the generous support of donors to FSU. Students awarded scholarships will be required to submit thank you letters to donors before funds can be disbursed. Students awarded will be notified by email of thank you requirements.
