SPECIAL CIRCUMSTANCE
COST OF ATTENDING ADJUSTMENT 2015/2016 (FASPCOA)

A school’s cost of attendance for students includes the components of tuition/fees, food and housing, books, transportation, and personal expenses. Schools are permitted to use either the student’s actual costs for each component, or costs paid by the average student. Adjustments for special circumstances can be made to the cost of attendance should the student have unexpected costs. This form should only be used AFTER the current Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) has been submitted. Each request for review is evaluated on an individual basis.

Please check the situation that applies:

Program Computer Requirement  ☐

For the program computer requirement, this is a one-time only consideration (cannot be used annually for upgrade/replacement). An increase to the budget does not guarantee additional aid. Purchase of the computer must be made before consideration, as a receipt is required. Note

Cost of a computer has already been considered in the cost of attendance for incoming undergraduates and incoming Law students, so no additional request is required for these students.

Child Care Expenses  ☐

For the use of independent students to adjust the cost of attendance for child care expenses while attending classes, study groups, labs, or doing related research for classes.

Purchase of other item (as required by department)  ☐

Some majors require the purchase of items not accounted for in the average students cost of attendance. If this is the option you are selecting, please include receipt of purchase and copy of syllabus or department requirements.
