We are pleased to receive your application for admission to Florida State University. Failure to answer these questions will result in a delay in processing your application. Please complete this form and return it to the Office of Admissions, so that we may add this information to your file.

Yes No Are you currently, or have you ever been, charged with or subject to disciplinary action for scholastic or any other type of behavioral misconduct at any educational institution? You do not need to disclose academic dismissal, suspension, or probation for poor grades. You are required to furnish FSU with a written explanation of the event(s) if there was academic misconduct (such as plagiarism or cheating) or behavioral misconduct, and tell us what you have learned from your past action(s).

Yes No Have you ever been charged with a violation of the law which resulted in, or if still pending could result in, probation, community service, a jail sentence, or the revocation or suspension of your driver's license (including traffic violations which resulted in a fine of $200 or more)? You are required to furnish FSU with a list of all violations, and must include a statement telling us what you have learned from your past action(s). (If your records have been expunged pursuant to applicable law, you are not required to answer "Yes" to this question. If you are unsure whether you should answer "Yes," we strongly suggest you do so and fully disclose all incidents. By doing so, you can avoid any risk of disciplinary action or revocation of an offer of admission.)

Yes No Have you ever been charged with a felony (even if adjudication was withheld)? You are required to furnish FSU with a copy of your criminal background history from each state in which the violation(s) occurred. If the violation(s) occurred in Florida, the criminal background history can be emailed to the Office of Admissions (admsofficer@fsu.edu) directly from the Florida Department of Law Enforcement (www.fdle.state.fl.us). You are also required to furnish a statement telling us what you have learned from your past action(s). (If your records have been expunged pursuant to applicable law, you are not required to answer "Yes" to this question. If you are unsure whether you should answer "Yes," we strongly suggest you do so and fully disclose all incidents. By doing so, you can avoid any risk of disciplinary action or revocation of an offer of admission.)

If you respond "Yes" to any of the above questions, the University reserves the right to request additional information if the written explanation you provide is not sufficient or leads to further questions.
