2022–2023 Special Circumstance—Death of Parent/Spouse (FASPDCT)

Approved Special Circumstances do not guarantee any additional aid will be awarded.

During high-volume processing times (i.e., the spring-term months of December and January; the summer-term months April and May; and the fall-term months of July and August), the estimated time frame for review is 6 to 8 weeks. During standard (off-peak times), the review will be completed within 15 business days.

Use this application when a parent or spouse listed on the initial FAFSA filed has died.

Please complete the following information:

- Name of Deceased: _____
- Relationship to Student: _____
- Date of Death: _____

Copies of the following documentation are required and must be attached when you submit the application:

- A copy of the death certificate
- A copy of all 2020 W-2 forms for the surviving parent or student
- If the parent did not earn income for the specific tax year, provide all of your spouse's income, and submit a statement indicating you earned zero income for the tax year in question.
- A copy of the SSA 1099 form if social security benefits were being received
- A copy of the 2020 tax return transcripts

I/we certify that the information listed above is correct to the best of my/our knowledge.
